Welcome to the (slightly delayed) January SFAN Newsletter for practitioners in organisations that don't subscribe to the SFAN service.

The non-subscriber newsletter includes details of our upcoming events along with CIPFA news and updates that will hopefully be of interest to practitioners.

Don't forget that you and your colleagues can add or amend your preferences for mailings from CIPFA via the MyCIPFA Preference Centre. Just make sure that any settings are confirmed so that the mailing list update process picks up your requested changes.

Stay safe and best wishes,

David and the FAN team.

2021/22 Accounts Closedown and Financial Reporting Workshops

This year's closedown workshops cover the latest changes to the code's requirements and recent developments in relation to 2021/22 local authority financial reporting. They will also provide updates on key areas of relevance to those involved in the accounts closedown and preparation process. The workshops consider accounting issues linked to COVID-19 and the main afternoon session focuses on the practical preparation issues for the IFRS 16 leases standard as the transition rapidly date approaches.

Attendees have a chance to:

- improve understanding of the key considerations and accounting changes impacting on the preparation of the 2021/22 statement of accounts
- consolidate key learning points from the 2020/21 accounts closedown and audit process, as well as covering other topical or ongoing financial reporting issues
- learn about the practical implementation issues to focus on for the introduction of IFRS 16 Leases in the UK Accounting Code on 1 April 2022

IFRS 16: A Valuer's Perspective

The latest events from CIPFA's Property Training Network focus on IFRS 16 Leases but seen from a valuer's perspective. Nonetheless this will most likely be an area of mutual interest for both accounting and property professionals alike and FAN prepaid places can be used to attend the events.

David will be presenting several parts of the day, alongside Donna Best, CIPFA Property Advisor and William Arkell from Gerald Eve. Initially set up as a one-off workshop, this has turned into a mini-series with three events now fully sold out and a fourth workshop has just been added on 9 March 2022. For further details and to book any places see the link under the events listing.

Mental Health and Wellbeing Hub

CIPFA's Mental Health and Wellbeing Hub is a free online resource for anyone that needs help, information or support. It is free to use, anonymous, and no registration is required.

At the heart of the hub is Talking Heads, an always-growing collection of short videos where members of the CIPFA community and beyond share their experiences. The library also provides links to trusted local support services and resources relevant to the videos you view.

CIPFA's Chief Executive Rob Whiteman comments "With the nature of the workplace changing, we have looked at new and innovative ways to support you. We hope this really adds value and we look forward to your feedback on the content."

CIPFA hopes its CIPFA Mental Health and Wellbeing Hub will assist in providing the support you, your friends or family might need in these challenging times.
