

AFEP IV

Description of services

AFEP IV programme annual licence consists of:

- (a) AFEP places to be utilised across training, roundtable, masterclasses and network sessions for each year of the AFEP IV programme. Places to be used on the below categories:
  - i) AFEP IV instructor led training courses and e-learning (excluding the CFO Leadership Academy as these are contained in the licence below)
  - ii) CIPFA Networks: Better Governance Forum, Finance Advisory Network, Police and Fire Network, Treasury Management Network and Property Training Network, Pensions, Procurement network
- (b) One place per force for each CIPFA's CFO Leadership Academy for anyone who has been identified as being future leaders or senior managers within their organisation;
- (c) Access to exclusive discussion forums and peer support for members to discuss challenges and share best practice;
- (d) 10% discount on all CIPFA accredited training and consultancy;
- (e) Support from CIPFA specialists on accountancy apprenticeships;
- (f) CFO Retreat access, one place per force and PCC;
- (g) Residential leadership development conference, one place per force and PCC;
- (h) DOF/PACCTS seminar one place per force and PCC;
- (i) CIPFA publications subscription access and bespoke policing guidance documents;
- (j) Regular horizon scanning and CIPFA thinks thought leadership content;
- (k) Dedicated police data analyst guidance and support in both finance and wider business intelligence teams via insight workshops, demos and guidance documents;
- (l) Dedicated police statistics and benchmarking service, including access to all AFEP data dashboards including nearest neighbour model;
- (m) AFEP Financial Resilience Index and Productivity Dashboard developed exclusively for the police sector;
- (n) Access to critical friend and mentoring support and specialist skills from CIPFA consultants;
- (o) ICAEW sustainability certificate – one place per force;
- (p) Access to CIPFA regions community and networking events.

