The network offer

The Police and Fire Network provides essential, practical and timely advice on strategic issues in police and fire, police and fire finance, accounting issues and transformation, via webinars, face-to-face events, an advice line and documentation on our website.

Working closely with colleagues in the Home Office, Her Majesty's Inspectorate of Constabulary and Fire and Rescue Services, National Audit Office, Police and Crime Commissioners' Treasurers Society, Fire Finance Network, National Police Chiefs' Council, Association of Police and Crime Commissioners and the AFEP Stakeholder and Engagement Group, we provide horizon scans of developments affecting your organisation. We also provide briefings on legislation, policy and finance developments with analysis of the financial, strategic and practical implications for police forces, police and crime commissioners and fire and rescue services.

Membership also includes access to our Finance Advisory Network, with a wide range of events, expert support and guidance on all aspects of best practice in public finance and accountancy. All of our events can also be delivered on-site, at a special discounted rate for subscribers. For those with specific questions, please contact our advisors, who are on hand to help and can be accessed via e-mail. Please contact Customer Services for questions related specifically to police and fire issues and David Ellis for accounting related questions.

Further support

On-site delivery

Most Police and Fire Network workshops are available as an on-site delivery. Contact us for more information.

CIPFA Essentials

Our 'Introduction to ...' Essentials programme is designed to help support those who may be new to the police or fire sectors, or perhaps working in a new role, and may also benefit non-finance staff. These interactive workshops are a great way to help develop knowledge and awareness of a specific service area and are proving increasingly popular with staff development programmes.
